PRESIDENT'S CORNER

The Chamber has been busy this month attending various events throughout the community. I appreciate all the invitations to be a part of member events. Here are a few photos of your Chamber Staff or Board members representing your Chamber.

On May 4, several Chamber Board members attended the Mayor's Prayer Breakfast hosted by the Raytown Interfaith Alliance.

Michelle Williams and I dressed in 50's attire and handed out save the date cards for Senior Celebration at the Senior Expo hosted by Raytown Council on Aging.

On May 8, I had the privilege meeting the Rotary Club for lunch at the soda fountain at Fox's. I met the Rotary Ambassadors from Argentina and Paraguay.

The Rock Island Corridor Authority hosted another town hall meeting in Raytown on May 4. It is exciting to see all the possibilities in store for Raytown.

Don't forget your Raytown Chamber is a resource for the business community. Please remember my door is always open.

Vicki Turnbow, President

Constructed by Shamrock Cabinets, these Little Libraries will contain books appropriate for children and adults. They are free and can be taken from the Libraries, kept, and/or returned for others to read. Appropriate replacements will be accepted by Rotarians to add to the collections at both locations. ## RAYTOWN QUALITY SCHOOLS NEWS

Two Raytown South students placed first and second in the Crazy Car Art Contest sponsored by Sci-Tech Automotive. Raytown South junior Morgan Vanross placed first and Raytown South sophomore Jacob Sharp placed second in the contest.

As part of the contest, both students used their imagination to create a drawing featuring a car and used color to bring their art to life.

Sci-Tech Automotive awarded Morgan with $250 and Jacob with $100. Morgan's name will also be added to a trophy on display at Sci-Tech.

Morgan's artwork will be featured on the billboard located at Raytown Road and 350 by Sci-Tech Automotive and Burger King beginning next week.

LANE AVENUE BAPTIST ANNOUNCES THEIR NEWEST ADDITION

Lane Avenue Baptist announces a new addition—Little Pantry on the Street! The Little Pantry on the Street is stocked with a variety of canned foods, personal items, and paper products. Anyone in the community in a time of need has 24-hour access to the items.

Little Pantry on the Street is the idea of Jessica McClard from Fayetteville, Arkansas. Power On Technologies, Inc. was awarded the state of Missouri SHOW-ME HEROES Flag of Freedom award for hiring Army Veteran, Dustin Beeman, in 2016.

President Patrick J Searcy said, "We understand the toll it takes on their families and I encourage other employers to recognize the value a veteran can bring to your organization."

About the award;

In 2010, former Missouri State Governor Jay Nixon was visiting a Missouri National Guard unit whom had been called for action to the Middle East. During the visit, some of the troops were getting ready to go out on patrol and the Governor asked, "What are you most concerned about". Their answer was not what he was expecting, "I am worried about being able to get a job when I get back home" so the former Governor developed the Missouri Show-Me Heroes intuitive. The award holds an American flag that was worn on the uniform of a Missouri National Guardsman soldier.
