PRESIDENT'S CORNER

I can't believe it is already May! While I put this month's newsletter together, the sun is shining and it is beautiful outside. Finally spring may be here!

Looking at the past few months, I have to take a moment to reflect. First of all, I can't believe Kyle has been gone a whole year. I talk to him occasionally and he is doing great and loves his job.

I continue to look for the right part time person to fill the Operations Coordinator position but will not worry about not having the position filled. I have a great group of volunteers who will help at a moments notice and am in a routine that seems to be working for now. Of course, the ultimate goal is to hire someone who can work about 20 hours per week Tuesday through Thursday and for some events. I promise to keep working hard for the Chamber and you the member!

This month, we celebrate our 28th straight year promoting Raytown Night at the Royals. Over the years we have sold between 200 and 3,300 tickets. The annual Raytown Chamber/Rotary Golf tournament is set for May 17 at Hillcrest Golf Club. May 9 is the deadline—don't play golf sign up to be a virtual golfer or sponsor a hole.

Besides May Day and Mother's Day, May also brings graduations. Raytown (4:30 pm) and Raytown South (8:00 pm) will graduate on Saturday, May 19 at Silverstein Eye Arena. There are a lot of gifted and talented students graduating from our two high schools. Thank you Raytown School District for taking care of our kids!

May 6 will be the last day for current City Administrator, Tom Cole. Tom will be missed. He was always a supporter of the Chamber and if I needed anything, all I had to do was call and if he could help he did. Good luck Tom in your future endeavors.

Please don't forget the Raytown Chamber is a resource for the business community and remember my door is always open.

Vicki Turnbow, President

Save The Date May 16, 4:30 p.m. Mel Aytes Education Center

Please join us for a Farewell Reception honoring Dr. Kirk A. Nooks, President of Metropolitan Community College - Longview.

Dr. Kirk A. Nooks has served as President at Longview for five years. Although we are sad to see him go, we are equally excited to see him begin a new chapter in his leadership journey as President at Gordon State College in Barnesville, GA.

Interested in having the Business Brigade visit your business? These visits provide a better understanding of what the business/ organization has to offer and hopefully will be educational and fun. Each month we will try to schedule at least two visits. During the visits, if allowed by the business, we hope to live stream on Facebook, post on Twitter and place some photos on Instagram! If you would like the Business Brigade to visit your business, please contact Vicki at 816-353-8500 or email her at president@raytownchamber.com. What a great way to show off your business to a small but mighty group of Chamber members!

A big thank you to Mayor Mike McDonough for the Proclamation and to True Provision for being April's luncheon sponsor. Angel McGee with the Kansas City MLB Youth Urban League Academy was our speaker for the luncheon. Pam Clark won the raffle to catch the ceremonial first pitch from Chiki Thompson, Chair Elect. ### Superintendent Dr. Allan Markley selected as the 2018 Pearce Award Recipient

QUALITY
SCHOOLS
Expect the Exceptional

The Missouri Association of School Administrators (MASA) has selected Superintendent Dr. Allan Markley as the recipient of the annual Robert L. Pearce Award for 2018. Each of the eight MASA districts nominated a superintendent for the award. Markley was selected for the award by a committee of his peers.

Dr. Markley was selected for his dedication to leveling the playing field so that all students and parents can expect the exceptional.

Dr. Markley believes that demographic and socio-economic backgrounds play a significant role in student success. It has been part of his mission to break down social barriers that would prevent students from reaching their goals in school and beyond.

Dr. Markley has worked to combat the transiency and transfer rate and provide consistency and continuity in the lives of students. Markley and his leadership team initiated Behavior Intervention Support Teams (BIST) and Positive Behavioral Intervention and Support systems (PBIS) along with standardizing the district curriculum. The district has effectively reduced suspension rates while increasing academic success.

Under Markley's leadership, professional development has become a central focus of the Raytown School District. The district initiated Early Release Wednesdays allowing staff to collaborate both in their buildings and with peers across the district. The district also encourages staff to share their expertise and feedback in developing professional development and curriculum.

Dr. Markley maintains three ongoing communications programs, the Citizen's Advisory Committee, the Superintendent/PTA Council Committee, and the Superintendent/High School Student Council Committee. Each communications program has helped to create a culture where stakeholders have the opportunity for two-way dialogue.

Dr. Markley is the current President of the Missouri Association of School Administrators (MASA). Markley is a member of the American Association of School Administrators (AASA) and serves his fellow administrative leaders through work on a variety of committees and board activities.

Dr. Markley is active Kiwanis Club and Rotary Club, the Raytown Chamber of Commerce, and is a past member of the Kansas City Citizens Violence Task Force. Dr. Markley began his administrative career as a principal at Sparta High School. He continued at Sparta as the superintendent. Markley also served as superintendent at Logan-Rogersville R-VIII before taking the superintendent's position at Raytown. This is Dr. Markley's 10th year as the superintendent of the Raytown School District.

The Pearce Award includes a monetary award to the recipient and a scholarship for a student in the district of the award winner.

Markley is the 32nd recipient of the prestigious Robert L. Pearce Award.

New Life at St. Regis. . . St. Regis Academy

In order to fulfill our responsibility to both the parents and students of the parish and community, our parish school has begun a renovation of our curriculum and philosophy of education. This renewal of the spiritual and intellectual life of the school, under a new name, St. Regis Academy, will allow us to better fulfill our role and responsibility to the minds and hearts we are privileged to care for. We are called to build up a new generation of students who desire to be vessels of God's merciful love. We will use Catholic Classical Liberal Arts Education methods to help children learn to communicate eloquently, think critically, and serve humbly while also having joy for the Gospel and a heart for the Lord and their peers. Classical education emphasizes the transcendentals of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness. It seeks to cultivate a sense of wonder and awe helping students develop a genuine love for learning and serving. A young adult formed in the classical model, (a systematic education rising from the factual basis (grammar) through the internal reasoning (logic) to the articulation (rhetoric) of his master of a subject, is prepared to discover the logic of systems, has the mental alacrity to learn a new subject themselves and the verbal mastery to teach it to their peers on the job. We provide a classical liberal arts education because we prepare our students to become critical thinkers and men and women of character.

At St. Regis, we are thrilled to couple this Catholic classical liberal arts education with our current STREAM (Science, technology, religion, engineering, arts, and mathematics) curriculum. By focusing first on each child's God given abilities, we aim to empower our students, faced with an ever changing world, with creativity and problem-solving skills. While our days will be centered around the rigors of classical liberal arts education, our students will be exposed to technology and a variety of real-world, problem-based learning opportunities. This variety of STREAM experiences as well as our transition to the Catholic classical liberal arts model is made possible by our parishioners, parents, and community members to whom we are overwhelmingly grateful.

At St. Regis, we thank you for your legacy of over fifty years of academic excellence and we appreciate your support as we move forward to meet the needs of our students for many years to come!

Raytown Police Department Releases 2017 Annual Report

Chief James B. Lynch and the Raytown Police Department have released the department's 2017 Annual Report. Chief Lynch presented the report to the Mayor and Board of Aldermen at the Raytown Board of Aldermen meeting on 04-09-2018. Municipal ordinance requires that an annual report of all police department activities be filed from the chief of police to the mayor and board of aldermen. The printed annual report was made possible through donations.

Though the 2017 report describes the department reorganization that occurred as a result of budget constraints, Chief Lynch wanted to emphasize that every member of the Raytown Police Department remains committed to serving our community and is focused on moving forward, together.

The report also includes overall police activity, crime statistics, community activities, and features various divisions and special units within the department. The Raytown Police Department felt that it was important for its residents to be informed about their police department and how taxpayer resources are used. Chief Lynch encouraged everyone to view the Raytown Police 2017 Annual Report at <http://www.raytownpolice.org>. A printed copy will be retained, and made available to the public, at the Raytown Branch of the Mid-Continent Public Library.

The annual report is the result of work by a small group of department members from different divisions and units of the department. That small group worked to provide an all-encompassing view of the department. They saved Raytown taxpayers money by writing and developing the report themselves, publishing it online, and tailoring it to inform its citizens.

The Raytown Police Department strives to engage with and inform its residents and businesses, as well as the general public, as directly as possible. The annual report has been an important tool to enhance that communication.
